

.

---

From: Walsh, Paul (DPH)
Sent: Wednesday, June 01, 2011 12:09 PM
To: McGuire, Thomas M (DPH)
Subject: FW: combine text data from two columns
Attachments: Stockroom_ItemList.xlsx

Attached is the listing of stockroom items, below is a formula for combining 2 columns

---

From: paulwalsh1@verizon.net [mailto:paulwalsh1@verizon.net]
Sent: Tuesday, May 31, 2011 6:17 AM
To: Walsh, Paul (DPH)
Subject: Fw: combine text data from two columns

From: Microsoft Answers
Sent: Friday, May 27, 2011 10:20 AM
To: paulwalsh1@verizon.net
Subject: combine text data from two columns

YOUR PROFILE | FAQ

---

Hello Napmaster:

Your question on Microsoft Answers has received a reply:

Question

combine text data from two columns

Reply

The basic method would be,

=A1&" "&B1

... or through the use of the CONCATENATE() function like,

=CONCATENATE(A1, " ", B1)

Your next steps*

Did this reply answer your question? Then let the community know!

[\[Mark this reply as your answer\]](#)

Was this reply helpful? Give the author some kudos!

[\[Vote as helpful\]](#)

Want to unsubscribe from this thread?

- . Click here to go to the thread
- . In your original question, click "Edit"
- . In the edit window, uncheck "Notify me when someone responds to this question"

* You'll have to enter your password first, but when you get to the thread, you'll see your action has been automatically recorded.

---

Please do not reply directly to this message. If you did not sign up or feel that you received this email in error click here to remove your email from Microsoft Answers.

Update email settings | Privacy Policy | Code of Conduct